January 2012 Texas Hold 'Em Tournament And "Making Change" Special Seminar Scheduled Back To Back, Reducing Travel Costs For Participants Of Both Events

Registration For 3rd Annual Moose International Texas Hold 'Em Tournament Now Open

The 3rd annual Moose International Texas Hold 'Em Tournament is scheduled for January 8 - 12, 2012. It will once again be held at the Golden Nugget Hotel & Casino in downtown Las Vegas. Last year's tournament drew over 750 participants and boasted a total prize fund of over $150,000, with $15,000 going to tournament winner Tim Donovan of Greeley-Evans Colorado.

Packages including the tournament buy-in and four nights accommodations at the Golden Nugget are $500 for one player in a room and $825 for two players sharing a room. A tournament entry with no lodging is available for $350. For more information and registration materials please visit,

"Making Change" Special Seminar Scheduled For January 5 - 7, 2012 in Las Vegas

These special sessions will combine presentations from Moose International staff with opportunities for participants to share their comments and ideas on shaping the future of the Moose fraternity. Participation is limited to current Lodge and Association Officers and all Past Governors of the Order.

The $250 registration fee for one participant in a room, or $175 each for two participants sharing a room, includes three nights accommodations at the Golden Nugget Hotel in downtown Las Vegas, one slot tournament entry, a seminar shirt and materials for the seminar, for each participant. Additional slot tournament entries are available for $20 each and extra shirts may be purchased for $30 each. ALL registration for this special seminar will be done online. No mailed or faxed entries will be accepted. For additional information and to register for the "Making Change" Special Seminar please visit
