Then, follow the 'Letter Rates' . . .

* There are variables— dependent spouse, children, parents & etc.

 Payments are effective from the "Date of Claim" & are retroactive, no matter how long it takes.

 Compensation ratings continue to increase beyond percentages, into Letter Ratings and monthly compensation & additional benefits also increase considerably.

* AID & ATTENDANCE (A&A) Provide$ for helpers with 'activities of daily living'

* Special Monthly Compensation (SMC) & Dependency Indemnity Compensation (DIC) have their own higher payment rates..
