TERRY L. TREADWELL

Terry L. Treadwell currently serves on the Moosehaven Board of Directors, having been appointed in May 2022. Prior to this role, he served on the Moose International Finance Committee and was appointed Deputy Supreme Governor for Moose International during the 2018–2019 term.

Terry joined The Moose in December 2010 as a member of Dale City, Virginia Lodge 2165, and maintains his primary membership with Woodbridge, Virginia Lodge 583. He holds additional memberships in Pearisburg, Virginia Lodge 1338; Erwin, Tennessee Lodge 939; Dickinson, North Dakota Lodge 2728, and St. Cloud, Minnesota Lodge 1400.

At the Lodge level, Terry has served as Trustee, Prelate, Governor, and Junior Past Governor.

He elevated to the Bull Run (VA) Moose Legion 185 in July 2011 and later added memberships in Hampton Roads (VA) Moose Legion 199, Old Dominion (VA) Moose Legion 148, and Western Pennsylvania Moose Legion 1. He has served as Moose Legion Chairman at the Lodge level.

Within the Virginia Moose Association, Terry has held numerous leadership roles, including District President, Outer Guard, Inner Guard, Treasurer, Prelate, Vice President, President, and Junior Past President.

A proud member of the 100 Division in the Moose 25 Club, Terry received the Fellowship Degree of Honor in August 2017. He has also been recognized as a top-five finalist for the Shining Star Award.

Outside of The Moose, Terry is actively involved in several industry and community associations, including multiple apartment and property-management associations, the International Council of Shopping Centers, and the Maryland Multi-Housing Association. Professionally, he has been with PotholeRepair.com since 2010 and currently serves as Vice President for the multi-state organization.

Terry enjoys writing prose and poetry, hiking, spending time in nature, fishing, and shooting sports. He and his wife, Paulette, reside in Montclair, Virginia. They are the proud parents of three daughters and grandparents to four grandchildren.
